

Personnel of D Company, 192nd Tank Battalion

COVERING THE PERIOD 1 DECEMBER 1941 TO
1 NOVEMBER 1945

The following roster was compiled from our research, from information provided by surviving members of the battalion, newspaper articles, and the official army report of Jacques V. Merrifield, 1st Lt., Aide-de-camp, 192nd Tank Battalion written after the war in November, 1945. D Company's officers came from the 194th in a transfer that never was completed.

To identify the original National Guardsmen who were assigned to Headquarters Company, they have been listed in the letter companies in which they were members.

* Shortly after the 192nd Tank Battalion arrived in the Philippines, D Company was attached to the 194th Tank Battalion but never officially transferred to the battalion.

As of January 31, 1942, the members of the company were still officially on the roster of the 192nd Tank Battalion. After the war, U.S. Army documents stated that the official transfer of the company had been suspended indefinitely when the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor.
